JUNE 18 IT'S FATHERS DAY!

Happy Birthday!
*To Rev. Gus Puleo,
 for his Birthday today, June 4th
 May God Bless him*

Happy Pentecost Sunday!

Filled with the Spirit!

The last chapter of Gaudium Evangelii is entitled “Spirit-filled Evangelizers.” It is really an invitation more than a title. Pope Francis focuses on the “spirit” of the New Evangelization and describes the qualities needed by those who would take on this work. The evangelizer or missionary, in love, trust, prayerfulness, holiness, strength, zeal and Faith, works at building one people out of many, fostering unity, creating the People of God. Pope Francis wrote, “It is a wonderful thing to be God’s faithful people. We achieve fulfilment when we break down walls and our heart is filled with faces and names!” (274)

Building unity doesn’t mean achieving sameness or conformity. Unity doesn’t require that we look the same, act the same way, think and speak in the same manner. The desire for unity can at times mistakenly push us toward some kind of assimilation which can cause tension, misunderstanding, pain and suffering.

It’s interesting to note the Catechism’s description of unity. “The Church is one because of her source.” (813) “From the beginning, this one Church has been marked by great diversity which comes from both the variety of God’s gifts and the diversity of those who receive them. Within the unity of the People of God, a multiplicity of peoples and cultures is gathered together. The great richness of such diversity is not opposed to the Church’s unity.” (814)

Jesus, in the power of the Spirit, is the source of the unity of the People of God. Pentecost offers us the opportunity to celebrate the “unity in diversity” of the God’s People. At the same time, Pentecost offers a challenge -in love, trust, prayerfulness, holiness, strength, zeal and Faith, the missionary of the New Evangelization accepts that there is still work to be done. And so with Pope Francis, “we implore Mary’s maternal intercession that the Church may become a home for many peoples, a mother for all peoples, and that the way may be opened to the birth of a new world.”

Through our ministry, may our Archdiocese become a home for many peoples, a mother for all peoples... “A heart filled with faces and names!”

We need help for the 4th of July Parade, if you are interested in becoming a volunteer for this special event, please contact Carlos Escudero at 610-637-5107.
